

JAKARTA
HIGH LEVEL DIALOGUE
ON ASEAN-ITALY
ECONOMIC RELATIONS

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Claudio Dordi

Claudio Dordi is Technical Assistance Team Leader of the EU-Vietnam Multilateral Trade Assistance Project (EU-MUTRAP). He is also Professor of International Law and Director of the PhD Program in International Law and Economics at Bocconi University, Milan.

In the context of the EU-MUTRAP project, since 2008 he has been leading a task force of more than three hundred experts to promote integration of Vietnam within global economic, trade and investment community.

He was Visiting Professorial Fellow at Georgetown Law School in 2002 and 2003 and at several other universities in South America, Europe and Asia. In his experience, he has often combined academic research with applied research within main international organizations (i.e. GATT and then WTO, World Bank, IMF, UNCTAD, WCO, EU and APEC).

Claudio Dordi has authored more than eighty publications, mainly on matters of international private and public law, EU law, world trade law and monetary law.