BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Tan Chong Meng

Tan Chong Meng is the Group Chief Executive Officer of PSA International (Port of Singapore Authority), a leading global port group, with port operations in Asia, Europe, Middle East and Latin America. He heads PSA's Senior Management Council, the executive team responsible for making key decisions Group-wide.

He joined PSA on 1 October 2011, bringing with him a wealth of experience in managing the complexity, diversity and breadth of a global business. He is responsible for the overall performance of the PSA Group and provides strategic direction on growing the company's value through maximizing assets, developing PSA port positions and engaging global business partnerships.

Outside the PSA Group, he is a non-Executive Director of the board of the National University Health System (NUHS), a Board Member of IE Singapore and a member of the Committee of Future Economy of Singapore.

Before joining PSA, he was the Executive Vice President, Global Commercial, Shell Downstream, of the Royal Dutch Shell Group. He led six global businesses, many of which are world leaders engaged in the marketing and sale of fuels, lubricants and specialty products for commercial customers operating in Aviation, Marine, Industrial, Land Transport, Construction and Liquefied Petroleum Gas.

A global leader with more than 20 years of experience in Shell, he worked in USA, Europe, China and Singapore, holding various senior leadership positions that spanned management, sales, marketing, trading, refinery operations, customer service and merger & acquisitions.

Prior to Shell, Tan Chong Meng also worked in various positions with Singapore's Ministry of National Development for five years.
